New Deaths Today: 0

*Note: the one additional case in the Essex Center resident was previously reported to the Essex County Health Department; however, the case was inadvertently excluded from our reported case count on that day. Upon reconciliation of resident totals today, we determined this case was not included in the total count. We have added this case as part of the resident case count today. Please keep in mind that isolation and care is managed by the facility.

*The suspect hospitalized case reported yesterday has now returned more than 1 negative COVID-19 test result and has been removed as a case from our reporting. This impacts the case numbers for the cluster in the following ways: total cases to date (one new case, but one removed means the total is same as yesterday); resident case numbers (51 total positive instead of 52 reported yesterday); and hospitalized case numbers (3 total reported today when 4 were reported yesterday).

Note: Quarantine totals are included in today's report.

Our next update will be sent on Tuesday, September 8, 2020.
